The musical score is for a piano piece titled 'Like a burlesque'. It begins at measure 157, marked with a forte (f) dynamic. The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat), and the time signature is 6/8. The score is written for piano with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first system shows a complex chordal texture in the right hand, with some notes marked '8va' (octave up). The second system, starting at measure 16, features a more rhythmic melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand, marked with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The music is characterized by syncopated rhythms and a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes.

She twirls the negligee over her head while rolling her breasts. A sneeze begins to build up. She sneezes into the negligee, looks at the stain, rolls her eyes, and tosses the negligee away -- upward and to the side timed so that the cluster sounds like the landing of the negligee.

This musical score page contains measures 330 through 332. It is written for a multi-staff instrument, likely a harpsichord or similar keyboard instrument, with four staves per system. The notation is complex, featuring many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes, often grouped in triplets. Measure 330 begins with a 7/16 time signature, which changes to 6/16 in the middle of the measure and then to 4/8 at the end. The key signature has one flat. Dynamic markings include '8^{va}' (octave) and '15^{ma}' (fifteenth). Measure 332 starts with a 4/8 time signature and continues with various rhythmic patterns and chordal textures. The bottom two staves of the system show more detailed harmonic structure with many beamed notes.

The image displays a musical score for the piano piece 'The Dolls' by Franz Schubert, specifically measures 351 through 354. The score is written for piano (p) and features a complex, chromatic melody in the right hand and a more rhythmic accompaniment in the left hand. The key signature is one flat (B-flat major or D minor), and the time signature is 3/2. The score includes various musical notations such as eighth notes, sixteenth notes, and rests. The lyrics, which are in German, are written above the right-hand staff. The lyrics are: 'Sie streift die Puppen vom Tische auf den Boden in Frustration und begräbt ihr Gesicht in ihren Händen.' The score is divided into two systems, with measures 351-353 in the first system and measures 354 in the second system. The score is marked with 'p' (piano) and 'f' (forte) dynamics. The score is also marked with '8va' (octave up) and '8vb' (octave down) markings. The score is written in a standard musical notation style, with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and a key signature of one flat.
